ECSTASY OF RELATIONSHIPS

October 11-13th | 2019

Tuition: $595 individual or $895 per couple

WHAT HOLDS YOU BACK from creating the deep and connected relationships you desire with friends and family, and the intimate partnership you crave with that special someone? What keeps you from using your voice, surrendering your heart, being 100% your authentic self so you can attract the same from others?

Explore your most valuable relationship first – the one with yourself. By breaking through your limiting beliefs, you'll expand your capacity to know and love others. As you increase your ability to connect, you will feel fully alive and able to give and receive love wholeheartedly. The juicy stuff!

Whether you're in a relationship and longing to rekindle the passion you once knew, or single and desiring to create partnership, this weekend is designed for you.

Love is life itself. Learn to live big.
